St. James's, November 25.

THE following Addreſs of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Weſtminſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Weſtminſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of your Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Weſtminſter, do with great Humility beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty theſe our Offices of Condolence and Congratulation.

Like all others of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, we deeply feel the Loſs of our late moſt excellent Sovereign, whoſe great Length of Reign over us was attended with this uncommon Bleſſing, among many others, that every Year increaſed the Affections of His Subjects towards Him; and that He lived to ſee the Zeal of all His People turned to its proper Objects, the Love and Service of their King and their Country.

We ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty upon your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Realms, and moſt heartily wiſh, that the National Happineſs, which we have enjoyed under your Royal Grandfather, may be carried on towards its Perfection, during your Majeſty's whole Reign; which, if our earneſt Prayers to Almighty God can prevail, will be a long and a proſperous one.

May your Majeſty's repeated Declarations of your firm Reſolutions to promote the Welfare of your Kingdoms, and of our holy Religion, ſo far operate in all your Councils and Actions, as that your Majeſty may have no Enemies at home, and ſoon find, that none will think it their Intereſt to continue ſuch abroad.

We eſteem ourſelves particularly happy, that we are under your Majeſty's immediate and peculiar Inſpection and Juriſdiction; and that, in virtue of our reſpective Stations, we ſhall be preſent and aſſiſting, when, on ſome ſolemn Day, the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms ſhall, in our Church, be placed on your Majeſty's Sacred Head, with the united Approbation and Acclamations of all your People.

This gives us the ſtrongeſt Reaſon to hope, that your Majeſty will approve and purſue thoſe wiſe and ſpirited Councils, which, in the Courſe of this juſt and neceſſary War, have, by the Bleſſing of Almighty God, been crowned with ſuch Glory and Succeſs, as to leave no other Contention amongſt us, than who ſhall give the ſtrongeſt Proofs of Zeal and Affection to our King and Country.

Permit us therefore to congratulate your Majeſty upon your moſt auſpicious Acceſſion to the Government of a free and loyal People, who account it their Honour, and their Happineſs, that your Majeſty was born, and is to reign amongſt them.

It is our ſincere and fervent Prayer to Heaven, that your Majeſty may long live to be the Guardian of our Religious, Civil and Commercial Rights; and we are fully perſuaded, that your Majeſty's grateful Subjects will chearfully employ the Means they ſhall acquire under your Royal Favour and Protection, in Support of ſuch Meaſures as your Majeſty ſhall judge neceſſary for ſecuring their juſt Claims, and for obtaining an equitable and laſting Peace.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others, of the County of Surry, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The moſt humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others, of the County of Surry.

Accept, Great Sir, our moſt hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms, and permit us to felicitate our Country on ſeeing your Majeſty in the Prime and Vigour of Youth, with a Mind matur'd by Wiſdom, and fraught with every great and princely Virtue, aſcend the Throne of your illuſtrious Anceſtors, at a Time when Victory attends your Majeſty's Arms in every Quarter of the World, and when the Wiſdom, Steadineſs, and Integrity of your Majeſty's Councils, the Valour and Conduct of your Forces, and the Union, Confidence and Loyalty of your People in general, are ſo remarkably conſpicuous.

As we of this County (ever true and loyal to your Majeſty and Family) wiſh every Acceſſion of Happineſs to your Majeſty's Reign, ſo we deſire, in the moſt duteous and reſpectful Manner, to tender to your Majeſty, without Reſerve, our beſt and moſt faithful Services, to be exerted in ſuch Manner, as your Majeſty, in your great Wiſdom, ſhall judge moſt Conducive to the Welfare and Proſperity of Great Britain, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of theſe Realms.

The following Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Southwark, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Antient Town and Borough of Southwark.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Antient Town and Borough of Southwark, humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon, and to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of our late Sovereign of bleſſed Memory.

At the ſame Time we deſire to expreſs our grateful Senſe of the Divine Goodneſs, in ſo greatly compenſating this ſudden and important Loſs, by the happy Acceſſion of a Prince, whoſe youthful Ardour is tempered with Judgment, and directed by Virtue to the publick Good.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carliſle, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Lieutenant General Sir Charles

Charles Howard and Major General John Stanwix, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, from a grateful Sense and Remembrance of the many Blessings we enjoyed under the auspicious and glorious Reign of our late most gracious Sovereign, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty upon the Death of your late Royal Grandfather. But the Duty we owe your Majesty obliges us to moderate our Grief, and to congratulate your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors.

Your Majesty's most gracious Declaration of your Affection for your native Country, and of your Care for the Glory and Happiness of your Kingdoms, demand the utmost Duty and Thankfulness from your faithful Subjects; permit us therefore (Sir) on this Occasion to express our Zeal and Affection for your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and our sincerest Wishes that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a dutiful, loyal, and happy People.

WE Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects beg Leave to condole your Majesty on the sudden and unexpected Demise of your great and glorious Ancestor. The Loss these Kingdoms would have sustained by his Death at this critical Conjuncture would have been irreparable, as well as inexpressible, had not your Majesty, like a Phœnix, arisen from the Ashes of your most amiable and illustrious Father and Grandfather, ascended the Throne to protect and govern a free, brave and opulent People, ever faithful, affectionate and obedient to a good and gracious Prince, who, like your Royal Grandfather, makes the Laws of the Land the Rule of his Government, and defends our holy Religion and admirable Constitution, as your Majesty hath declared in Council your Resolution to do, in whose Royal Word we entirely confide.

We therefore most sincerely and heartily congratulate your Majesty on your Exaltation to the Government of these Realms, which you hold not only by Right of Succession, but by a more endearing Tenure, the united and universal Consent, Satisfaction, Approbation and Affection of all your People, every where, throughout the vast Extent of your Majesty's Dominions.

Your Majesty's natural and princely Endowments, and Royal Virtues, and the Illustrious Blood that streams in your Veins from your blessed Father and glorious Grandfather, gives us the clearest Prospect, and strongest Assurances, of possessing our Religion, Rights, Liberties and Properties in the like Security, Freedom, and Tranquility we enjoyed them under his late Majesty's mild, gracious and prosperous Reign.

That the God of Wisdom and Power may direct all your Councils, and give you Success and Victory over all your perfidious and inveterate Enemies, enable you powerfully to assist and protect your high Allies and Friends, to secure your Colonies, and to encourage our Trade and Commerce, and grant your Majesty a long and glorious Reign over an united and grateful People, is the sincere Wish and most ardent Prayer of us, your Majesty's most loyal and obsequious Subjects and Servants.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners of the City of Canterbury, has been presented to His Majesty by William Gray, Esq; Mayor; Mark Thomas, Esq; Chamberlain; Thomas Davis, Esq; Alderman; and John Jeken, Esq; Town Clerk; accompanied by Sir James Creed and Mathew Robinson Morris, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners of the City of Canterbury, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

YOUR Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners of the City of Canterbury, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to condole the Loss the Nation has sustained by the Death of our late Sovereign, of ever blessed and famous Memory; and to congratulate your Majesty, the Heir of his Virtues as well as his Kingdoms, upon your Accession to his Imperial Crown.

The gracious Declaration, that your Majesty should make it the Business of your Life, to promote in every Thing the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms, and to preserve and strengthen the Constitution both in Church and State, is the most indulgent Testimony of Love and Benignity that can be given by a Prince to his People, and must possess all true English Hearts with Fullness of Joy.

Your Majesty will be pleased to permit us to make a Tender of our sincere Assurances of doing every Thing in our Power to promote the Peace and Happiness of your Reign; for the long Continuance of which we fervently pray; and that the Throne of your Majesty may be established in your Person and Royal Line to the End of Time.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Commonalty, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole, has been presented to His Majesty by James West, Esq; their Recorder, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Commonalty, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Commonalty, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole, humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Majesty with proper Sentiments of Affection and Condoleance for the great Loss of your Royal Grandfather; a Prince, whose Reign will be distinguished in the Annals of Britain, by its great Clemency, impartial Administration of Justice, the Security and full Enjoyment of every Blessing; whose Memory therefore must be always dear to a grateful People.

We should be inconsolable for our Loss of His late most Gracious Majesty, but from our certain Prospect of enjoying equal Felicity under the Auspices of a Prince, whose Mind has been formed under the Inspection and Influence of so Illustrious a Predecessor.

Permit us therefore, Sir, to congratulate you on your happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms:

Realms, glorious in itſelf, but rendered more ſo by the late Circumſtances of Victory throughout the Globe.

Permit us alſo, Great Sir, to expreſs our Zeal and ſteady Attachment to your Sacred Perſon and Government, and that your Reign over us may be long, happy, and proſperous, and that your Throne may be eſtabliſhed in your Illuſtrious Houſe to lateſt Poſterity, are the ſincere and fervent Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Poole, Nov. 15, 1760. Your Majeſty's moſt Obedient and Faithful Servants and Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of St. Albans, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. Lord Grimſton, and James Weſt, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, and High Steward of the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of St. Albans.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of St. Albans, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne, to expreſs our Concern in the general Loſs theſe Nations have ſuſtained by the Death of our late Glorious and Excellent King; and to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors.

Deeply ſenſible as we are of the Weight of this Event, we have the moſt ſincere Confidence from your Majeſty's Royal Declarations, and from that Piety, Benevolence, and Moderation, which adorned your early Years, and endeared you to every honeſt Man in your Kingdoms, that the Loſs will be abundantly repaired to your People, through the whole Courſe of your Majeſty's Reign. Engaged as your Majeſty is in an expenſive and bloody War, we doubt not but by the Wiſdom of your Councils, and the active Vigour of your Fleets and Armies, your Majeſty will ſoon be enabled to give Repoſe to Europe, and to your People the Bleſſings of Peace.

May the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Things, proſper your Majeſty's Arms, and grant you a long and happy Reign over a free, dutiful, and affectionate People.

Dated at the Town Hall of the Borough of St. Albans, this 15th Day of November, 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Principal, Profeſſors and Maſters of the Mariſchal College and Univerſity of Aberdeen, having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderneſs, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Principal, Profeſſors and Maſters of the Mariſchal College and Univerſity of Aberdeen.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

AT a Time when your Majeſty's Subjects are haſtening from all Parts to expreſs the warmeſt Sentiments, both of Affection to your Majeſty, and of Veneration for the Memory of your Royal Predeceſſor, whom it hath pleaſed God to remove from this to the Inheritance of a better Kingdom, be pleaſed to accept, Moſt Gracious Sovereign, of theſe unfeigned Expreſſions of Duty, which the Occaſion ſo juſtly demands from your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, the Principal, Profeſſors, and Maſters of the Mariſchal College and Univerſity of Aberdeen, an Univerſity under your Majeſty's immediate Patronage.

We beg Leave, in the humbleſt Manner, to condole with your Majeſty, on the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late moſt Gracious Sovereign, whoſe Reign will not be more diſtinguiſhed in Britiſh Annals by the glorious and unexampled Succeſſes with which Almighty God bleſſed His Arms, than by the numerous Virtues which adorned His Character, His paternal Tenderneſs towards His Subjects; His Magnanimity and impartial Juſtice always united with Clemency; His inviolable Regard to the Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms; and his ſtrict Adherence to Treaties: Theſe Virtues attracted the Love and Honour of His Subjects, forced the Admiration of His Enemies, and will command the Applauſe of lateſt Ages.

It is with the ſincereſt Pleaſure we reflect, that the heavy Loſs which theſe Kingdoms have lately ſuſtained, is ſo amply ſupplied by your Majeſty, a Prince, deſcended from the ſame illuſtrious Line, and educated in the ſame generous Principles, with thoſe Heroes, who have been the Defenders of the Liberties of Mankind, and of the Proteſtant Faith; a Prince, whoſe Wiſdom and Royal Virtues have been already diſplayed ſo conſpicuouſly, that your Majeſty's Subjects muſt heartily congratulate your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, at this critical Juncture, and muſt look forward to your Majeſty's future Adminiſtration with the entireſt Confidence.

It ſhall be our conſtant Study to recommend to the Youth under our Care, the Principles of Liberty and true Religion, and to make them ſenſible, that loyal Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, is the beſt Means of perpetuating theſe Bleſſings to the Britiſh Iſlands.

We rejoice in the Hope of ſeeing Learning flouriſh, under the Patronage of a Monarch, who has early imbibed the Knowledge of Arts and Sciences, and diſplayed the Love of them. And it is our hearty Prayer to the God of Heaven, that He may, for the Happineſs of theſe Kidgdoms, grant to your Majeſty a long and glorious Reign, as ſtrongly marked with national Proſperity, as we are confident it will be with the Abilities and Virtues of the Sovereign.

Signed in Name, Preſence, and by Appointment of the Univerſity, at Mariſchal College, the 15th Day of November 1760, by

George Campbell, Principal.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Lord Howe, in the Abſence of Colonel Howe one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, truly ſenſible of the great Loſs, which your Majeſty, and the Nation have ſuſtained by the Death of our late moſt gracious and glorious Sovereign, do humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on that melancholy Event; and to congratulate your Majeſty upon your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Realms.

We reflect with inexpreſſible Pleaſure upon the great Virtues which adorn your Majeſty, and which we are very confident, will be always exerted to promote the Glory and Happineſs of your Subjects; and we moſt ſincerely aſſure your Majeſty, that we will make it our Study, as it is our Duty, to ſhew, upon all Occaſions, an affectionate Regard, and an inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government.

We unite in our moſt earneſt Wiſhes, that your Majeſty may long live in Health and Honour to reign over an happy and obedient People; and that there may never be wanting one of your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Family to wear the Crown of theſe Kingdoms.

The

The Eight following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to His Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been preſented to His Majeſty: All which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council aſſembled, do beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your happy Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms; and with all Humility preſume to condole with your Majeſty upon the Deceaſe of our late moſt gracious Sovereign.

Nor could our Hearts receive Comfort in that deep Sorrow with which we were penetrated at the ſudden and unſpeakable Loſs of that moſt Excellent Prince, but by viewing thoſe Virtues which we gratefully revered in Him, ſtill blooming in His Royal Succeſſor to bleſs your People with a long, auſpicious and glorious Adminiſtration.

The Eſtabliſhment of the Crown in your Majeſty's moſt Illuſtrious Houſe, was the Eſtabliſhment of our Laws, our Religion, and our Liberties: As ſuch, hath it at all Times been conſidered by our City, and adhered to, with a ſteady and unſhaken Loyalty, in which we humbly beſeech your Majeſty to accept of our moſt ſolemn Aſſurances of our ever perſevering, and of our moſt zealous Affection, Duty and Devotion to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid City to be hereunto affixed, the Third Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to declare the deep and unfeigned Concern with which our Hearts are filled by the Loſs of our late moſt Excellent Sovereign of Glorious Memory, and moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty graciouſly to accept our Condoleance on ſo mournful and afflicting an Event.

The many exalted Virtues which ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed his late Majeſty's happy Reign, in His juſt and mild Adminiſtration at home, as well as his unwearied Endeavours, and unſhaken Firmneſs, exerted abroad for the Defence and Protection of His Subjects, for aſſerting the Honour and Rights of His Crown, and for the Support of true Religion, and the Liberties of Mankind, againſt the moſt powerful Confederacy the World hath yet ſeen, have rendered His Reign one of the moſt Glorious in the Annals of Britain, and muſt inſpire the Minds of his loyal People with he ſincereſt Affection for His Memory, and tranſmit His Name with Luſtre to the lateſt Poſterity.

But we the Members of this your loyal Univerſity, who have ſo long been favoured in a diſtinguiſhed Manner with His late Majeſty's Protection, and received ſo many and ſo eminent Proofs of a Munificence truly Royal, are more ſtrongly obliged to expreſs that deep Senſe of Duty and Veneration we bore to His Royal Perſon while living, and to teſtify our Grief for the Loſs of ſo gracious a Patron, and ſo liberal a Benefactor.

Nothing could conſole the People of theſe Realms under ſo heavy an Affliction, but the Reflection, that ſince it hath pleaſed the Divine Providence to deprive us of ſo excellent a King, he departed full of Days and Honour, and hath left us a Succeſſor of His Royal Line, who is Heir not only to His Throne, but to all His Virtues, which for ſo many Years made His Subjects happy, and for the Glory of whoſe Reign, the full Completion of thoſe great Deſigns ſo wiſely laid, and ſo happily conducted, for the Tranquility of Mankind, ſeem in a peculiar Manner reſerved.

Permit us, therefore, Gracious Sovereign, moſt humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt unalterable Duty and Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, and that we will perſevere in inſtructing the Youth of this Kingdom, committed to our Charge, in the Principles of true Religion, and unſhaken Loyalty to your Majeſty and your Illuſtrious Houſe, with the ſame Care and Aſſiduity we have hitherto ſo ſucceſsfully exerted.

May that Almighty Power, by whom Kings reign, and Princes decree Juſtice, continue the ſame Divine Protection to your Majeſty's Counſels and Arms, wherewith he ſo eminently bleſſed your Royal Grandfather; and grant to the united Prayers of a dutiful and loyal People, that your Majeſty's Reign may in Duration, Glory and Happineſs, exceed that of the moſt renowned of your Predeceſſors.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Proteſtant Diſſenters of Ireland.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE Proteſtant Diſſenters of your Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, being deeply ſenſible of the great Loſs theſe Nations have ſuſtained, by the Death of our late Gracious Sovereign King George the Second, your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather; a loſs the more ſeverely felt by your Majeſty and your Kingdoms, for coming at ſo critical a Juncture, and ſo unexpected, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on this affecting Occaſion.

The many Bleſſings the People of theſe Lands have ſo long enjoyed, under his late Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, the Mildneſs and Equity of his Government, the Care he took to preſerve and maintain their valuable Liberties, and Privileges, his tender Regard to the Rights of Conſcience, and the many ſignal Succeſſes with which it pleaſed God to bleſs his Arms and Councils, juſtly endear his Memory to thoſe of the preſent Age, and will render it glorious to all ſucceeding Generations.

But amidſt the juſt and general Concern for the Loſs of ſo great and good a King, pleaſing Proſpects open to us, from the excellent and amiable Qualities of his Royal Succeſſor; the Princely and Chriſtian Virtues which have adorned your Majeſty's early Age, and whilſt yet a Subject, will, we truſt, ſhine forth with a ſtill brighter Luſtre upon the Throne.

The Senſe your Majeſty has expreſſed in your moſt gracious Declaration, of the Weight which has fallen upon you, and of your own Inſufficiency to ſupport it as you wiſh, is a Proof of that noble Modeſty which is ſo becoming a great and good Mind: And the Aſſurance your Majeſty has been pleaſed to give us, of your being animated by the tendereſt Affection for your Country, to enter with Chearfulneſs into ſo arduous a Situation, is an Earneſt to your faithful Subjects, that your Majeſty will fulfil the Character of a Patriot King; and that you will make it the Buſineſs of your Life to promote in every thing the Glory and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms.

We therefore, with Hearts full of Duty and Affection, congratulate your Sacred Majeſty upon your Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, and take this Occaſion to aſſure your Majeſty of the ſteady and inviolable Attachment of the Proteſtant Diſſenters of this Kingdom, to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government; and of their Readineſs to ſhew their undiſſembled Loyalty, by all the Expreſſions of it which are in their Power.

That your Majeſty may be long continued an eminent Bleſſing to theſe Lands; that Wiſdom and Righteouſneſs may be the Stability of your Throne; that Religion and Virtue may flouriſh under the Influence of your Authority and Example; that whilſt it is neceſſary to carry on the preſent War, your Majeſty's

Majeſty's Councils and Arms may be crowned with Glory and Victory; and that You may have the Honour of being the happy Inſtrument of procuring for us a ſafe and honourable Peace; are the earneſt Prayers of, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Proteſtant Diſſenters of Ireland.

Signed, in their Name, and by their Appointment, by JOHN LELAND.

To GEORGE the Third, King of Great Britain, and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

The humble Addreſs of the People called Quakers, of the Kingdom of Ireland.

May it pleaſe the King,

WE thy dutiful and faithful Subjects, being deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the Loſs theſe Nations have ſuſtained by the ſudden and unexpected Removal of thy Royal Grandfather, our late gracious King, beg Leave to condole with Thee this affecting Event.

His mild and juſt Government rendered him dear to all his faithful Subjects; and the particular Indulgence and Protection we have enjoyed in the free Exerciſe of our Religious Duties, have left on our Minds laſting Impreſſions of Gratitude and Reſpect to his Memory.

At the ſame Time permit us to congratulate Thee on thy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Realms, in which exalted Station, we truſt in that God by whom Kings reign, that thoſe many Virtues, which we rejoice to hear adorn thy Breaſt (and for which we are humbly thankful to the Divine Giver) will ever continue to animate thy Conduct: And thy gracious Declaration for the Encouragement of Piety, and Suppreſſion of Vice and Immorality, gives us juſt Grounds to hope, that thy Reign will be happy to thy People, and honourable to Thyſelf.

Perſuaded of the Clemency and Benevolence of thy Diſpoſition, and conſcious of our own Fidelity and Affection to thy Perſon and Government, we are at once emboldened to aſk, and aſſured of thy favourable Protection: A Protection, we ſtand the more in need of, as ſome of our Religious Tenets (of the Truth of which we are firmly perſwaded) expoſe us to Sufferings from the Hands of unreaſonable Men. Such Protection we thankfully acknowledge, the kind Acceptance of our peaceable and dutiful Demeanour hath procured to us, during the late Reigns of thy Royal Anceſtors; and it is our firm Reſolution (through Divine Aſſiſtance) to merit the Continuance thereof, by behaving agreeable to our Chriſtian Principles, as becomes faithful Subjects.

We offer up our fervent Prayers to Almighty God, that He may endue Thee with Wiſdom, to rule in His Fear; that in thy Days Righteouſneſs may exalt the Nation; and that Thou may be the happy Inſtrument of reſtoring a permanent Peace; that His protecting Providence may ſhield Thee from every Danger, preſerve Thee long the beloved Sovereign of a happy and grateful People, and perpetuate their Happineſs, by continuing the Crown in thy Family to lateſt Poſterity.

Dublin, the 13th of the 11th Month (called November) 1760.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Kilkenny, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Kilkenny, beg Leave moſt humbly to addreſs your Majeſty, to expreſs our Sorrow for the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late moſt excellent King.

The heavy Affliction which filled our Hearts upon the Death of a Prince, under whom we have enjoyed ſuch Happineſs and Glory, could only be removed by the Goodneſs of Providence, in placing your Majeſty on the Throne.

We humbly intreat, that your Majeſty will be pleaſed to accept our unfeigned Congratulations, upon your glorious Acceſſion to the Crown of your Anceſtors; and we do aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall conſtantly endeavour, by our Unanimity and Zeal for your Service, and the Support of your Government, to deſerve and obtain the Continuance of that Royal Favour and Protection which we have ſo happily experienced under your Anceſtors. And that we ſhall, at all Times, be ready to lay down our Lives and Fortunes, for the Preſervation of thoſe Bleſſings in Church and State, which we can only hope to enjoy under a Prince of the illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Kilkenny, in Ireland,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Kilkenny, beg Leave moſt humbly to addreſs your Majeſty, to expreſs our unfeigned Sorrow for the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late moſt excellent King; a Prince, under whoſe Government we enjoyed Security, Glory, and Happineſs.

Nothing could remove the Affliction that oppreſt us on this melancholy Occaſion, but the Goodneſs of God, in placing your Majeſty on the Throne, and giving us thereby a firm Aſſurance of all the Bleſſings which the beſt of Princes can confer on a happy and grateful people.

We moſt humbly intreat your Majeſty will be pleaſed to accept our Congratulations, on your happy Acceſſion to Throne of your Anceſtors, which can never retain its preſent Glory, unleſs filled by a Prince of the illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall ever be ready to lay down our Lives and Fortunes, for the Support of your Government; and ſhall endeavour, by our Loyalty to your Sacred Perſon, and Zeal for your Service, to deſerve a Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings, which we enjoyed under your Glorious Anceſtors.

SIRE,

PErmettez au Corps des François Refugiez, établis dans Vôtre Royaume d'Irlande, de preſenter à Vôtre Majeſté des Coeurs également ſenſibles à la Douleur que cauſe le ſouvenir d'un Regne ſi benin, ſi équitable, ſi glorieux, et à la joye de voir le Sceptre de George Second, d'heureuſe Memoire, tranſmis à un ſi digne Succeſſeur.

Les Eloges que la Voix unanime donne à Vôtre Majeſté ſont de ſûrs Garans que Vous êtes Heritier des Vertus comme Vous l'etes du Trône de Vôtre Auguſte Ayeul.

Nous beniſſons la Providence qui conſerve à tous Vos Sujets les Avantages et la Gloire du Regne precedent, et à Nous, en particulier, l'humble Aſſurance des mêmes Faveurs dont nous avions le bonheur de jouir; Et du fond de l'Ame nous voüons à Vôtre Majeſté le profond Reſpect, l'exacte Obeiſſance, l'inviolable Fidelité, le Zele ardent, que nous avons toujours eu pour les Rois de Vôtre Illuſtre Maiſon.

Protegé par le Tout-puiſſant, puiſſiez Vous Sire regner long tems ſur les Coeurs d'un Peuple floriſſant, et faire bientôt ſucceder aux Maux d'une ſanglante Guerre les Douceurs d'une Paix honorable et ſolide!
